

Agenda

The 2022 (16th Annual) Saskatchewan Transfusion Medicine Symposium

Friday, November 4, 2022 @ 0800-1505

WebEx

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
0800-0805	Opening Remarks	Paula Van Vliet, CLT, MLT, ART, PBM cert. Manager Professional Practice Transfusions Safety, PBM and IG Stewardship, Clinical Excellence
0805-0830	Iron Isomaltoside vs Iron Sucrose for Treatment of Iron Deficiency in Pregnancy. A Randomized Comparative Trial	Alicia Hanowski, RN, BScN, PBM cert. Patient Blood Management Coordinator (Regina) IDA Clinical Trial Coordinator, Clinical Excellence
0830-0915	Post-Partum Hemorrhage – Prevention, Recognition and Management	Dr. S. Smith MD FRCS, Assistant Professor Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology University of Saskatchewan IDA Clinical Trial Principal Investigator
0915-0930	Refreshment Break
0930-1015	Chronic Inflammatory Demyelinating Polyneuropathy (CIDP): An Overview and Management Update	Dr. Kerri Schellenberg, MD FRCP, CSCN(EMG) MMedEd Associate Professor, Neurology University of Saskatchewan Neuromuscular and EMG Medical Director, ALS Clinic Medical Director, EMG Laboratory sponsored by CSL Behring
1015-1100	Albumin New Guidelines and Changing Practice	Dr. Jeannie Callum MD, FRCP Professor of Pathology and Molecular Medicine Director of Transfusion Medicine at Queen's University.
1100-1215	Burnout and Finding Joy	Sandra Payne, ex-RN, BN Key Note Speaker Master Certified Holistic Wellness Coach
1215-1300	Lunch
1300-1400	Massive Hemorrhage Protocol (MHP) – Rural to Urban	Dr. Vanessa Cranford Trauma and General Surgeon, Regina, Saskatchewan
1400-1500	Hereditary Angioedema: What Have We Learned?	Dr. Goodyear, MS, MD, FRCP Clinical Associate Professor, Division of Hematology and Hematologic Malignancies, Southern Alberta Rare Blood Disorders Program Acute Care, University of Calgary sponsored by CSL Behring
1500-1505	Closing Remarks	Michele Burns CBS

Thank you to all of our sponsors for supporting this year's 16th Annual Transfusion Medicine Symposium!

CSL Behring

octapharma®
For the safe and optimal use of human proteins